SilverSource Announces New Board of Trustees

STAMFORD, CT (November 18, 2016) SilverSource, Inc. announces the appointment of four new members of its Board of Trustees, as well as the full slate of officers and board members. Joining the Board of Trustees are Dr. Polly Rauh, Ed. D; Carol Burns, RN; Robert Goldstein, CPA and Gary H. Neems.

“We are very pleased to welcome our newest Board members,” said Karen M. Kelly, SilverSource Board Chair. “They embody the spirit of community, and their experience and proven business leadership will serve SilverSource well. We are fortunate to have them by our side as we continue to grow as a leader in supporting older adults and their families in southern Fairfield County.”

Dr. Polly Rauh’s career has been dedicated to developing high quality programs that provide access and success for all children, youth and families. She’s held positions as Stamford teacher, principal, district administrator as well as superintendent in New York State. Her work as a school district level leader and community champion is well-known, and she has served on many boards throughout the region. Dr. Rauh earned her BA from Oberlin College, has a Masters and 6th year Administration Degree and holds a Masters and Doctorate from Teachers College, Columbia University.

Carol Burns, RN, held the executive director position at River House Adult Day Center for 25 years. Ms. Burns is credited with building River House (previously known as Greenwich Adult Day Care) into one of CT’s leading providers of day care for older adults. During her tenure, she expanded and enhanced the services provided to clients, caregivers and the community, improving the lives of seniors and their families throughout the region. Ms. Burns, who is the President of the Connecticut Geriatric Society, lives in Greenwich and is actively engaged in promoting the wellbeing of older adults throughout Fairfield County.

Robert Goldstein, CPA, is a Senior Consultant at Marks Paneth LLP. Bringing more than 40 years of experience to this position, his distinguished career includes extensive experience in public accounting and taxation as well as in financial management within private industry. Prior to joining Marks Paneth, Mr. Goldstein held the position of Partner at Leipziger & Breskin LLP and Leipziger & Breskin. He is actively involved in both AICPA and NYSSCPA, and is a frequent speaker on tax matters. Mr. Goldstein holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Baruch College, and resides in Stamford, Connecticut.

Gary H. Neems is an independent consultant with over 35 years of experience in credit, asset management, private equity investing, business building and executive management in both public and private companies. Mr. Neems has held positions as COO and a member of the Investment and Funds Committee of CIFIC Asset Management, Co-CEO, CFO and a founder of Callidus Capital Management, and Co-Managing Partner of Advanta Partners LP. He has been a Board member of a number of organizations, and holds a B.A. in Chemistry from the University of Rochester and an M.B.A. in Finance from the University of Rochester Simon Graduate School of Business. Mr. Neems lives in Stamford, CT with his wife, where they raised three sons.
